

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	7	Chapter 12	179
Picture credits	7	Ditchling, Clayton and Hurstpierpoint:
Preface	9	A common, mills, fords and small woods	179
Introduction	13	Chapter 13	189
Chapter 1	21	Westmeston to Wivelsfield Green and Plumpton to South Chailey
The Wealden landscape's history		Chapter 14	201
Chapter 2	41	Along the River Ouse:
Wealden earth history		41 Hamsey, Barcombe and Newick	201
Dinosaurs, tropical swamps and seas, rift valleys, horsetails, tree ferns and quarries		Chapter 15	215
Chapter 3	55	Haywards Heath to Chailey Common and the Bluebell Line
Landownership and farming		Chapter 16	229
Chapter 4	67	Between Haywards Heath and Burgess Hill:
The big threats		81 Ansty, Heaselands, Ashenground and Bedelands	229
Chapter 5	81	Chapter 17	239
Woods		Nightingales, waterlands and droves – the heart of the Low Weald:
Chapter 6	95	109 West Grinstead to Twineham; Cowfold to Shermanbury	239
The Forests of St Leonard's and Worth		Chapter 18	249
Chapter 7	109	Horsham, Warnham, Shipley woods, Southwater and Knepp
Rivers, streams, ponds and waterlands		Chapter 19	259
Chapter 8	123	Sedgwick, Nuthurst, Leonardslee and Bolney
Archaic pasture, meadow, moor and heath		Chapter 20	269
Chapter 9	137	Rift valley and forest:
Ancient Sussex Giants:		165 The headwaters of the Ouse	269
The oldest and biggest trees ¹		Chapter 21	279
Chapter 10	149	The Ardingly Ridgeland:
More about wildlife		165 Balcombe, West Hoathly, Ardingly, Horsted Keynes	279
Chapter 11	165
Henfield to Albourne and the Downs foot villages:
River, pasture, ploughland and woods			